

AN INTIMATE EVENING WITH RED PLASTIC BAG, CULTURAL AMBASSADOR OF BARBADOS!

Red Plastic Bag, the ten time Calypso Monarch of Barbados and one of four Cultural Ambassadors of Barbados, will take patrons seated in the beautiful theatre of the Armenian Youth Centre on a musical journey of his forty years in the entertainment arena. It is the first time in Canada that Red Plastic Bag, a.k.a RPB, and real name Stedson Wiltshire will perform his award winning commentary calypso, and soca songs while giving the background to their creation at a theatre with an audience capacity of 450! Of course he will perform major hits such as “Ragga Ragga”(recorded by other artists in seven languages), “Can’t Find My Brudda”(featured in the recently released film HALL shown at this year’s CTF in Toronto), “Something’s Happening”, “Boatride”, and this year’s Crop-Over release “I’m Alive”, among several others.

Accompanied by eight very talented musicians (Neu Jenarashun Band) including a strong horn section, patrons will experience RPB’s early songs which first made him an outstanding calypsonian in Barbados. Also, they will enjoy his compositions that shows him as an outstanding performer in the Caribbean and in countries such as Brazil, Australia, China, UK, USA, and Canada!

The opening acts will be the Gibbs Brothers with their enthralling folk songs of the Caribbean, and the Crooner with his humorous calypso tunes! All profits to the Red Foundation Charity of Barbados. “The Red Foundation grew out of the desire for renowned Caribbean entertainer and businessman, Stedson Wiltshire aka. Red Plastic Bag, to give back to a society that has given so much to him.”

This special concert is on next week Friday, October 26 at 8:30 p.m. at the Armenian Youth Centre Theatre, 50 Hallcrown Place, off Consumers Rd. near Victoria Park Ave. and 401 in Toronto. Admission is $40. All profits to Red Foundation Charity of Barbados.
